

University of Rome UnitelmaSapienza, Conference Room, 12 December 2024

THE EUROPEAN UNION AND CLIMATE CHANGE POLICIES, REGULATION, AND ACCESS TO JUSTICE

Session I (9.30-11.00)

Climate Change and EU Internal Policies

Chair Giulia D'Agnone (University of Camerino)

Sandra Marco Colino (University of Hong Kong), The Impact of Climate Change on EU Competition Policy

Rachele Cera (Italian National Research Council), Corporate Climate Due Diligence in Europe Under the Lens of the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and its Interactions with the EU CS3D

Chiara Treglia (LUISS Guido Carli), Enhancing Green Bond Regulation in the EU: Strengthening Oversight, Market Growth, and Climate Justice

Coffee Break (11:00)

Session II (11.30-13.00)

Access to Justice in Climate Matters in the Aftermath of KlimaSeniorinnen

Chair Alessandra Gianelli (Sapienza University of Rome)

Clara Labus (LUISS Guido Carli), The End of Plaumann: Now or Never?

Bettina Steible (Universitat Oberta de Catalunya), Legal Standing Before the CJEU and Climate Change. The Common Constitutional Traditions to the Rescue?

Light Lunch (13:00)

Session III (14.30-16.30)

The External Dimension of EU Climate Policies

Chair Enzo Cannizzaro (Sapienza University of Rome)

Eleftheria Neframi (University of Luxembourg), External Dimension of the European Green Deal: A Competences Perspective

Carlo De Stefano (Roma Tre University), An International Law Reading of the EU Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism (CBAM)

Rachele Magnaghi (University of Milan), EU in Pursuit of GHG Emission Reductions Through Trade-Related Measures: EUDR Challenges Under the TBT Agreement

Scientific Committee:

Giulio Fedele, Marco Fisicaro, Livia Hinz, Nicola Napoletano, Chiara Venturini

* The workshop is organized in collaboration with CRDI – Research Centre for International Law (UnitelmaSapienza) and with the support of the Research Project JurisCC: Giurisdizione internazionale e cambiamento climatico: problemi, sfide e opportunità, financed by the Department of Law and Economics (DSGE) of UnitelmaSapienza.